Justification of the variants

Add an accommodation ad

Version 1

- The web page is divided into two segments vertically in this edition. Remove the accommodation filters from the header and place them as a navigation bar on the left side of the web page. Less space has been set out for accommodation filters, and more has been set aside for accommodation advertisements. After the header section, a location selector and a search function are included. Advertisements are placed in rectangle spaces with little boxes containing the most critical information. For view more information about the accommodation user must click the three-dot icon.

Version 2

- We separated the web page into two pieces vertically in version 2 like we did in version 1. Additionally, the location selection functions as a filter. After the header, a search function is added. Advertisements are placed in large rectangle space boxes. In comparison to version one, this advertisement box has more information. By clicking see more text, the user may learn more about the advertising.

Version 1

- After the header, Username, My account home, My ads, and Logout buttons were introduced in version 1. User can change accommodation Location from that map icon. The web page was then split into three sections by vertical lines. The three components are about the apartment, accommodation features and services, and about you. Use five input image fields for upload images. Save as draft, download pdf copy, and submit button added bottom of third column.

Version 2

- In version 2 web side divided into two parts. In left side we allocated small size for add Use name, My account home, My ads and logout button in top of the left side. Location selector, New ad, save as draft and download pdf button added to bottom of the left side. In other side we displayed accommodation ad form as single view. We use one image uploader to upload 5 images. Submit button added to bottom of the form.

Version 1

- Web pages were separated into two boxes in version 1. top box and bottom box. Terms and conditions have been added to the top part box, and privacy policies have been added to the bottom part box.

Version 2

- The web page is broken into two pieces in version 2: a left side box and a right side box. Terms and conditions are presented on the left, while privacy policies are displayed on the right. This version allows users to quickly view the website's terms and conditions as well as privacy policies.

- This is very different from the first version. Here too there is a search bar at the top, but no filtering option is given. At the bottom part is the description of the ads posted by the user. Each ad is in a rectangular shape. This section can be divided horizontally into two sections. At the top left is a picture of the ad and on the right is the description of the ad. Justification for selecting best interface

1.IT19197906

Accommodation – version 2

- This version is easier to use than version 1. More information regarding accommodations is shown in the advertisement box in version 2. It is a reason for those consumers may easily select advertising from the list. Users may also utilize the left-hand navigation bar to add filters.

Add an accommodation ad - version 2

- In comparison to version 1, version 2 is a little more straightforward. The format of the form is simple to understand, and it is simple to fill out. Username, my account name, my ads, and logout button have been added to the left side navigation bar, along with a location selector, new ad, save as draft, and download pdf copy button, so that a user can access all of these items in one spot. Furthermore, I created a single picture upload icon because utilizing one image selector rather than selecting one by one image saves the user time.

Terms and condition – version 2

- In version 2 user can easily see the terms and conditions and privacy policies of lanakaholidays.com. Main point are added using bullets then users can clearly see these paragraphs.

2.IT19964188

Car / Van hire page – Version 01

- Button placement is better on version 1 than version 2. Version 1 is preferred because it is more familiar to users and users can easily identify important content at once.

List All Ads – Version 01

- Version 1 looks less complicated compared to version 2. Also, advertisements full title is clearly visible on version 1. So, user can easily view all ads on version 1.

Register – Version 02

- In register form designs version two is preferred because users are more familiar with right oriented designs than centered designs. Also, version 2 looks better than version 1.

3. IT19049946

Contact us (Version 1)

This version contains more useful information (contact info, opening hours, social links) compared to the other. Content organization/placement is also much better since it makes it more attractive such as the short form fields are placed side by side. Other than that, spaces between elements brings more readability compared to the version 2.

Wanted (Version 1)

This page is much more user friendly when it comes to readability because of the well-maintained space between. Version 2 is hard to read since the content is high and compact.

Travel Resource (Version 1)

This interface is much more user friendly compared to the second one because of the high readability. Space is well maintained between elements and boxes helps users to separate the advertisements. Version 2 listings are difficult to identify as separate elements and it may mislead the user.

4. IT19382586

Tours / Services - Version 2

There is a clear difference between version 1 and 2 and version 2 seems more user friendly. This is because the structure of version 2 is much better than the structure of version 1. Version 2 has clear filtering options on the left side so that the user can easily filter the ads. The ad is displayed in a rectangular section on the right, with a picture of the ad and a brief description of it. And the user can easily search the ad from the search bar at the top. This makes it very easy for the user to gain an understanding of the content in the ad.

View / Edit / Delete Ad - Version 2

I chose version 2 because it has a more professional look and feels than version 1. Version 2 seems to be more compatible with a modern web application than version 1. Version 2 also provides the user with more information about the ad they posted than version 1. The way the Edit and Delete buttons are used is very user friendly. The user can also search for the ads they have posted through the search bar at the top. This page has a very simple, but eye catching design.

About Us - Version 2

In version 2 the user can clearly see the about us. It is very clear and has an image show so the user gets a clearer understanding. The Image Show displays images related to the website. So the structure of this page is more user friendly and eye catching.

5. IT19987576

FAQs -Version 1

- I selected the Version 1 because I think version 1 has a user-friendly interface. In version 2, users would not be able to read them easily due to too much content included in one side of two horizontal areas. But Version 1 Questions and answers can be clearly and correctly identified. So, user can read them easily.

Map – Version 2

- I think version 2 will be a friendly one for the user. Because it is easier to manage map using dropdown menu and search tab.

Update your details - Version2

- It is difficult to notice the submit button in Version 1 as it is on the top of the form. But Version 2 submit button is displayed at bottom right of the page. Therefore, it is easier to access for the user. And version 2 components are clearly separated. So that I think version 2 is the better one.

Ideation techniques

IT19964188: - Senevirathna K.G.P.R

Brainstorming

- We used brainstorming as ideation technique to identify best sketches. We used MS Teams to conduct brainstorming session. In that everyone presents their ideas. In that leader wrote down all ideas present at brainstorming session.

Brainwriting

- Brainwriting is another ideation technique we tried to identify best sketches. All members write down their ideas on word document and add them to group. Then others add new ideas to them. Brainwriting helps to reduce anxiety and pressure that comes with brainstorming.

IT19382586: - Pushpamal K.M.T.

Challenging assumptions

- Challenging assumptions may be a problem-solving strategy that involves testing ideas that are assumed to be true by a personal, group, institution, society, science or industry. it's a back-to-basics approach that involves tweaking the basic ideas that you simply hold as a business or team. this may be good technique. First we shared each other's problematic web pages and did a study on them. Zoom then had a meeting and argued with each other about the basic changes that should be made to those pages

IT19049946 – Thilakarathne H.P.A.S

Prototyping

Prototyping is an ideation technique that I used. I sketched the ideas using online platforms (mock flow) and shared between the team. Then I evaluated each as a team and refined them based on the team's ideas.

Brainstorming

I used brainstorming as an ideation technique to come up with the best interfaces. Team was connected online to have the session. Initially we discussed about the background of the selected website along with similar ones. Then discussed on the interface implementation and noted down the all ideas by the team leader.

Brain write

Brain write is another ideation technique we used to come up with best interfaces. All members spent few minutes writing their ideas and shared them to the group. Then discussed on them and refined further as a team.

IT19987576: - Shehan R.H.A

Sketching/Sketchstorming

Sketching could be a great method of putting thoughts to paper, whether or not it's when describing thoughts to colleagues or brainstorming new solutions individually and as a gaggle. you'll share thoughts regarding anything from strategy to style to user flows through sketches. Everyone in the group guessed the structure of their pages, scribbled on the paper and then discussed the shortcomings with the group.

IT19197906:- O.A.R.P.Dharmadasa

SCAMPER

SCAMPER is an acronym formed from the abbreviation of: Substitute, Combine, Adapt, Modify (Also magnify and minify), Put to a different use , Eliminate, and Reverse. SCAMPER could be a heuristic technique which challenges the established order and helps you explore new possibilities. Two variants were created for every interface to avoid user issues identified in private and contextual queries. A table was then created considering the benefits and downsides of every variant. the acceptable variants were then selected, taking under consideration their advantages and downsides, and eventually eliminating the shortcomings identified within the ideation technique and selecting the ultimate variant.
